

Job Opening- Director of Music Ministries

About Us

Greensboro First United Methodist Church (FUMC) is a growing, dual campus church located in Georgia's beautiful lake country. Our North Campus, in historic downtown Greensboro, includes a 100 year-old sanctuary. Our South Campus, completed in 2009, is located near our lake communities. Greensboro FUMC staff consists of our senior pastor, associate pastor, ministers to families with children, administrative staff, two pianists, a music intern and many committed volunteers. We have a congregation of approximately 800 members with average attendance at worship 350 to 400. Our congregation consists of many talented members including musicians, choir members, bell ringers, and pianists. Our style of music worship is predominately traditional but we hope to incorporate more contemporary music in the future. We have an active music ministry which includes presentations by our choirs at Sunday worship services, Easter and Christmas cantatas, and special presentations by our bell choir. At Greensboro FUMC, our worship is Christ-centered and music plays an integral role.

Job Description:

Greensboro FUMC is seeking a qualified, experienced Director of Music Ministries. Greensboro FUMC is a growing, dual-campus church with many opportunities to create a dynamic, multi-faceted music ministry. The Director of Music Ministries must be a devoted follower of Jesus Christ who chooses to serve God through music ministries at both campuses of Greensboro FUMC.

Qualifications include:

1. Knowledge, training and experience in music ministry and in leadership roles;
2. Energy and enthusiasm in leading joyful worship in traditional and contemporary styles;
3. Education, experience and proficiency in conducting large and small choral groups of both adults and children, bell choir and orchestral musicians;
4. Experience in planning and conducting seasonal cantatas;
5. Skills in planning, coordinating and communicating effectively;
6. Proficiency in singing, keyboard and/or other musical instruments desired but not required.

Responsibilities include:

1. Creating an environment of praise through music;
2. Providing excellent leadership in all aspects of music ministry;
3. Participating in planning and coordinating the calendar of music presentations at Sunday worship services, special and seasonal events;
4. Coordinating music selections with pastor;
5. Scheduling of choirs, pianists and other musicians at both campuses;
6. Conducting and rehearsing all choirs including distribution of music;
7. Conducting congregational singing during worship services and other events;
8. Communicating effectively with pastoral staff and choir members;
9. Identifying, recruiting and integrating talents of congregation, choirs and community to enhance our worship experience through music;
10. Reviewing and managing the budget in regard to music ministry;
11. Participating in upkeep and maintenance of musical instruments;
12. Identifying audio needs for singers and instrumentalists.
